A CULTURAL EXPLORATION LIKE NO OTHER!

Behind the Veil with Emmet Cohen

Masters of Our Time!*

February 4-9, 2026
February 11-16, 2026

Join Emmet Cohen for Insider Access to Cuba's Vibrant Arts Scene

Cuba Rhythm and Views is honored to present Emmet Cohen's encore appearance in Cuba. This curated journey into Havana's enduring creative arts, culture, people, and vibrant nightlife will feature the Emmet Cohen Trio along with Cuba's most revered musicians. Delegates will be dining in Havana's world-renowned privately-owned paladares and stay in the finest hotel, Iberostar Marqués de la Torre.

Cuba Rhythm and Views' business model from Day One has always been in support of the Cuban people. For us, it is about the art. We view ourselves as cultural ambassadors creating bonafide dialogue and understanding between our peoples. Thankfully there are hundreds of our CR&V alumni scattered throughout the country who feel the same way. From classical music to jazz, dance and the visual arts, CR&V reveals the challenging reality of the arts in Cuba that is remarkably different from anywhere else in the world.

We have witnessed the glimpse of hope that came with the political rapprochement in 2014, only to have it rolled back five years later. As the diplomatic relationship between the United States and the Republic of Cuba continues to degrade after more than six decades of embargo, our cultural and educational exchanges are among the few legal opportunities remaining for Americans to visit Cuba.

Arts Education

Cuba is committed to arts education from primary school to the university level. The flourishing music, dance and arts scene provides a solid foundation in the training students receive at the prestigious arts schools throughout the country. To see firsthand how artists and musicians are cultivated, we will visit both Conservatorio Amadeo Roldán and Ballet Liza Alfonso where you will experience Cuba's arts education system with private performances by students. In addition, you will have the opportunity to communicate with the students and their teachers in a round table discussion that will enlighten you on Cuba's robust arts education.

Cuban Jazz and Nightlife

In Havana, jazz thrives. Our patrons are not only immersed into Havana's jazz nightlife, but will be treated to private, one-on-one concerts from the best and brightest of Cuba's jazz elite. This unique exposure to one of the world's most active jazz scenes is a CR&V exclusive. You will better understand the day-to-day sacrifices as well as the financial and artistic challenges, including the difficulty of buying and maintaining instruments in Cuba.

Architecture and Historic Preservation

Some of the most exquisite historic buildings in the Caribbean are in Cuba. Havana celebrated its 500th anniversary in 2019. Despite 60+ years of embargo, Cuba has managed to preserve and restore some of its most important heritage structures, neighborhoods and monuments. Using tourist dollars and financial incentives, much of Old Havana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is gradually being rehabilitated to its former beauty. Our patrons will gain an insight into what it takes to gradually restore one of the New World's great cities, one building at a time.

Visual Arts

As part of our cultural exchange, our patrons will visit notable Cuban artists' studios, galleries and homes. They will discuss their work and their artistic visions and the state of Cuba's control of artistic expression. These personal encounters will help you understand cultural life in Cuba before the Revolution as well as today. Artwork will be for sale at all studios and galleries.

Cuban Cuisine and Paladares

The growing movement of private restaurants, or paladares, in family homes is flourishing in Havana. This movement is at the vanguard of economic change and private ownership in Cuba. The best dining in Cuba is in paladares along the backstreets and alleyways of Old and New Havana. The restaurants are being reviewed internationally and Havanaphiles are slowly finding their way to these wonderful free enterprise culinary destinations. All of our meals other than breakfast, will be in paladares. And, for the meals not included in the package, you will be given the names and locations of Havana's best private restaurants, all within walking distance from the Iberostar Marqués de la Torre.

Additional Activities In Support of the Cuban People

Meet with career Cuban diplomat Camilo García López-Trigo for a talk about US/Cuban relations. Dr. García is a professor at University of Havana International Relations School and an expert in US political studies. You will also visit a day care center run by The Sisters of the Love of God, see a classroom in session, learn about the remarkable work the sisters do for families in need and be inspired by the humanitarian work of their order.

Don't take our word for it! Here's what people said about our recent trip:

"A quick note to thank you for the most amazing trip of my life... the Cuban people have a great soul and an exuberant spirit which we experienced in their art and music and the wonderful small moments with them. Cuba is now in my heart."

—Geri F, New York, NY

"Those four days were filled with a wonderland of beautiful music, art, delicious food, and a welcoming vibe from everyone we met. We came for the music, but were treated to everything else beyond our dream."

—Natalie V and Richard L, Lake Worth, FL

"I cannot tell you enough how incredible the trip was. I am using the word 'transformational' with sincerity. The experiences continue to flood my brain...you put together an amazing trip for us."

—Susan O, Boulder, CO

"From day one, we were given intimate glimpses into the hearts and souls of the dancers, singers, musicians and teachers who shared their lives with us. We have been on many 'tours' to other countries but have never experienced anything as moving and beautiful as this."

—Thomas and Sally K, Tempe, AZ

"It would not be an exaggeration to say that our week in Cuba was life-changing. Although we had been to Cuba before, this visit provided an opportunity to experience the country's culture, food, history, vibrant music and artist community, and to meet some incredible people in a way that would be impossible otherwise. One of the highlights was observing Emmet Cohen and his trio give a masterclass to a school band. We are so grateful we had the chance to see Cuba with CR&V and would highly recommend them."
